301

- Handling and Assembling of Hardwood Furniture

Teamsters Local 814 vs. Carpenters Local 45 – 2 Court Square, Long Island City.

On October 10, 2007, a mediation was held. During the course of the mediation, an agreement was shown that on January 10, 2001, the same scope of work was the subject of a mediation. As a result of the 2001 mediation, an agreement between both trades was signed with respect to the jurisdiction of each trade. Both parties agreed the terms and conditions were being complied with and that the January 10, 2001 agreement should be entered into the Green Book. That agreement is as follows:

DISPUTANTS:

TEAMSTERS LOCAL UNION #814

vs.

NYC DISTRICT COUNCIL OF CARPENTERS

WORK IN QUESTION:

HANDLING AND ASSEMBLING OF HARDWOOD FURNITURE

In attendance for Teamsters Local Union #814 were Robert Corbett, B.M. and Peter Furtado, B.A. In attendance for Carpenters District Council were George DiLacio, Jr., B.A., Carpenters Local Union #157 and Joseph Calciano, NYC District Council of Carpenters.

Edward Malloy, President of the B.C.T.C. of New York acted as Mediator under the New York Plan for the Settlement of Jurisdictional Disputes.

Referenced at this meeting was the NYC District Council of Carpenters and Teamsters Local Union #814 Agreement dated March 10, 1983. After a lengthy discussion and to maintain harmony on the job site, the following was agreed to:

1. All furniture will be unloaded and uncrated by members of Teamster Local Union #814. The furniture will then be placed in the elevator. Upon reaching the assigned floor, the furniture will be received by a composite crew of members of Local #814 and members of Carpenters District Council, who will then move the furniture to its designated place. If the furniture is assigned to a specified staging area, the handling will be performed by members of Teamsters Local Union #814.
2. The assembly of all furniture and final placement will be performed by members of Carpenters District Council. All free standing furniture will be handled by members of Teamsters Local Union #814.

Signed:

Michael Ford
Executive Secretary-Treasurer
NYC District Council of Carpenters

Robert Corbett
Business Manager
